

Sarasota Happenings:

Check out <http://www.discovernaturalsarasota.org>. This website brings together so much information about Sarasota County's natural assets to enable everyone to enjoy Sarasota's great outdoors. It includes our bays, beaches, the Gulf, parks and preserves, and rivers and is organized so one can readily find information based on individual interests.

The following are useful website links to local news, event calendars, entertainment venues and more:

<http://www.heraldtribune.com/section/todayspaper> (Sarasota Herald Tribune newspaper)

<http://yourobserver.com/news/sarasota/> (Community weekly newspaper)

<http://livingonthesuncoast.com/> (Local "lifestyles and more" magazine)

<http://sarasota.patch.com/> (Community-specific news and information platform)

<http://mysuncoast.com/default.aspx> (WWSB ABC 7)

<http://www.ticketsarasota.com/> (Sarasota Herald Tribune's Weekly Entertainment Guide)

<http://www.scgov.net/calendar/index.asp> (Sarasota County Events)

<http://fl.evanced.info/sclibs/lib/eventcalendar.asp?ln=2> (Library Events)

<http://www.ringling.org/> (John and Mabel Ringling Museum of Art)

<http://www.selby.org/> (Marie Selby Botanical Gardens)

<http://www.asolorep.org/> (Asolo Repertory Theatre)

<http://mote.org/> (Mote Marine Aquarium)

<http://www.historicspanishpoint.org/>

<http://www.sarasotafilmfestival.com/>

<http://www.vanwezel.org/> (Van Wezel Performing Arts Hall)

<http://www.theplayers.org/> (The Players Theatre)

<http://www.floridastudiotheatre.org/>

http://baltimore.orioles.mlb.com/spring_training/ballpark.jsp?c_id=bal (Spring Baseball Training at Ed Smith Stadium)

Interested in volunteering, but not sure what you would like to do or where you would like to do it? Check out <http://YoudBePerfectForThis.org/> This is an initiative of Gulf Coast Community Foundation.